

“Ethical Issues in the Separation of Insurance Law from the Commercial Act: Balancing Consumer Protection and Industry Development”

Hongjoo Jung

Sungkyunkwan University, Seoul Korea (South)

Abstract:

Background and Rationale

- Overview of the current status of insurance law within the South Korean Commercial Act.
- Discussion of recent movements to establish a separate insurance law.
- Importance of addressing ethical concerns arising from this reform.

Research Objectives and Questions

- What are the ethical implications of separating insurance law?
- How does separation impact consumers, insurers, and regulators?
- What ethical dilemmas arise, and how can they be resolved?

Methodology and Scope

- Literature review, case studies, and comparative analysis of international legal systems